A STATEMENT FROM SENATOR NORM COLEMAN

Statement Regarding Al Franken's $70,000 In Back Taxes In 17 States

Saint Paul – The following is a statement from U.S. Senator Norm Coleman regarding news accounts that Al Franken owes $70,000 in back taxes in seventeen states:

“These are troubling admissions by Al Franken. Clearly, with self-professed violations in 17 different states, there will be many, many questions about this matter. On behalf of the tens of thousands of small businesses in my state, and on behalf of the millions of taxpayers of Minnesota who work hard, obey the rules and follow the laws, I believe this is a serious, and troublesome situation that must be addressed.”
