The Bible doesn't tell us to neglect the poor.

But Preacher Dan Hall stands with those who do.

Preacher Dan Hall says he is a moral and religious counselor to Republican leaders.¹ But when Republicans took away health care for more than 30,000 Minnesotans in need, Preacher Hall remained silent and did nothing.

Dan Hall puts the interests of the powerful over the poor.

Earlier this year, Republicans gutted our state's health care program for our sickest and poorest residents, many of whom are veterans.² The Catholic Archdiocese and the Evangelical Lutheran Synod joined with other faith leaders in objection to denying poor Minnesotans the care they need.³ But Preacher Hall remained silent.

Where was Preacher Hall when Minnesota's poorest needed a voice?
